NEW YORK, Jan. 31, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Nasdaq, Inc. today announced its inclusion in the 2023 Bloomberg Gender-Equality Index (GEI) for the third consecutive year. The GEI is a modified market capitalization-weighted index that tracks the performance of public companies committed to transparency in gender-data reporting. Nasdaq is one of 484 companies across 45 countries and regions to be named to the 2023 index.

"Nasdaq is proud to be included in the Bloomberg Gender-Equality Index for the third consecutive year," said Laura Agharkar, Global Head of Diversity, Equity and Culture, Nasdaq. The GEI scoring methodology allows stakeholders to assess company performance and compare across industry peer groups. This reference index measures gender equality across five pillars: leadership & talent pipeline; equal pay & gender pay parity; inclusive culture; anti-sexual harassment policies; and external brand.

"Congratulations to the companies that are included in the 2023 GEI," said Peter T. Grauer, Chairman of Bloomberg and Founding Chairman of the U.S. 30% Club. "We continue to see an increase in both interest and membership globally, reflecting a shared goal of transparency in gender-related metrics."

Nasdaq's purpose of advancing economic progress for all fuels its company culture, providing opportunities for everyone to reach their full potential.
