About Military Friendly®:

The Military Friendly® designation process includes extensive research and data-driven surveys of leading opportunities for the military community in the areas of employment, education, franchising and cities. The survey, methodology, criteria and weightings are developed with the assistance of third party Advisory Boards consisting of recruiting experts from across the country and are independently tested by Ernst & Young LLP based upon the weightings and methodology established by Victory Media. Any company interested in participating in the Virtual Career Fair must first submit a Military Friendly® Employers survey and compete for the moniker. The survey is administered for free and is open annually. To have your company added to the free survey contact us at contact@militaryfriendly.com. Criteria for consideration can be found on our website MilitaryFriendly.com.

About Victory Media:
