From: Bob Greifeld
To: All NASDAQ Associates
Subject: Statement from NASDAQ Regarding OMX

Dear Colleagues,

Yesterday we learned that Borse Dubai is interested in acquiring a stake in OMX and that it may currently be in the process of purchasing shares. We maintain that our offer for all outstanding shares of OMX is superior for OMX shareholders.

As you know, we have begun preparations for the integration between our organizations. Earlier this week we were able to file our preliminary Proxy Statement/U.S. Prospectus (as part of Form S-4) with the SEC ahead of schedule. We continue to conduct our integration meetings as planned and to move forward with our integration planning process.

I have attached our official statement below and included a link to OMX's Statement regarding this development.

Statement From NASDAQ Regarding OMX
9 August 2007

Nasdaq notes the conditional offer by Borse Dubai for at least 25% of OMX AB.

Nasdaq remains fully committed to its recommended offer for 100% of OMX.

The combination of Nasdaq and OMX will provide significant benefits for customers, shareholders and stakeholders in both companies, strengthen the Nordic region as a financial center and provide enhanced opportunities for economic growth throughout the Nordic region.

The Nasdaq offer includes a substantial portion of Nasdaq shares, providing shareholders the opportunity to benefit from the long term value creation opportunity of the combined group, which brings together two companies with a common culture and vision of innovation, competitiveness and pioneering technology expertise.

Nasdaq urges OMX shareholders to take no action with respect to the conditional offer by Dubai for a minority stake in OMX.

I'll keep you abreast of further news regarding this situation as it develops.

Regards,
